Ted Toms, Drachenfels. Sunrise (see Bonn)

BONN: In 2017 the Bradfield-based painter Ted Toms was inspired by Turner's 1817 depictions of the most spectacular stretch of the river Rhine to embark on his own series of oil paintings of that area. Having aroused much local interest in this project, he was delighted to be invited to display his work this autumn at Haus an der Redoute, at Bad Godesberg, just outside Bonn. Illustrated opposite, from Toms's 'Rhine Reflections', is Drachenfels. Sunrise.
